

Gay Revival Promise

- 1. I promise to seek out and to help all those in need of God's knowledge, wisdom, healing, power, and love.
- 2. I promise never to condemn anyone's sexual preference, because if I condemn them then I condemn myself. Cause, We do unto others as we want done unto us. Though, I can condemn the root of the sin not the sexual preference, but the sin of lust which all fall prey too, along, with the lost of self control.
- 3. I shall not say any sexual preference is a sin in and of its self, because it is not. But, it is our sinful nature and our bad choices that makes our sexuality sinful.
- 4. It is the eye's which our the light of the body, and what we allow to enter through our eyes is what can darken, enlighten, or influence us to either be guided by God or corrupted by evil. So, I shall pray for those in need, and for also myself to not be corrupted through what I see and or may hear.
- 5. I promise to try not to offend any willing soul trying to get closer to God. Though, If I do I shall humble myself before God and the party and ask for forgiveness, and I will try to prevent further offences in the future.
- 6. In any relationship these three remain faith, hope, and Love but the greatest of these is love. So, no matter who it is between, weather it be man and woman or gay and gay, as long as there is love God shall abide. This I promise to teach.
- 7. God will judge us each differently according to our circumstances, and by the love that we have shown to others. So, I promise to show God's love to all who need it, and I will pray for his guidance through his love and spirit.
- 8. We are all part of the same body of God. Jesus died on the cross for all of us, so, that we may be saved from our transgressions at no cost to us. All we have to do is ask and we shall receive; seek and we shall find; knock and the door will open. So that the door to our freedom and unbinding of sin shall begin This I shall teach so that all may understand that in Christ we are removed from sin.

9. All things hidden in secret will be revealed at the end of time. So, holding things in only keeps us from hearing God's will in our hearts. So I shall teach to listen and to speak of that which binds us. So, our sins will be removed from us as far as the east is from the west. So, that God's word will prevail.
10. God is the way the truth and the light, so trust in him is what I shall impart to all those who can learn and listen. So they may be guided by truth and light of that which is given through the spirit.
11. I promise to do all these things above and to help those troubled to find away to God through Jesus no matter who they may be this I say Amen...
